FLAGGING NOTIFICATIONS

A shareholder of a listed company has an obligation to inform the Financial Supervisory Authority and the listed company in question of the changes in its holding in the listed company's shares. A listed company is obliged to publish the flagging notification received from a shareholder.

Under the provisions of the Securities Markets Act, changes in holdings must be disclosed when the holding reaches, exceeds or falls below 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 50 or 66.7 (2/3) per cent of the voting rights or the numbers of shares of the company.

The flagging notifications must be sent to Sampo plc's e-mail address flagging(at)sampo.fi.
